First, the said Thomas Sedgwick for himself saith that he is of the age of twenty-one years and upwards, and that on the second day of the month of April last past he, this deponent, being then a bachelor and free from all matrimonial contracts, did go to a house near the Fleet Market in the parish of St. Bride, London, in company with Marian Lidgould of the aforesaid parish of St. Olave, Jewry, London, then a spinster of the age of twenty years and upwards, free as this deponent verily believes from all matrimonial contracts whatever. And the deponent further saith that a person who appeared to this deponent, by his dress, to be a clergyman of the Church of England, did then and there read over the marriage ceremony, as set forth in the Common Prayer . . . . . to him this deponent and the said Marian Lidgould, and did pronounce him this deponent and the said Marian Lidgould to be lawfull man and wife, and the deponent saith that he hath great reason to suspect that the person who so acted as a clergyman was not in Orders. And that he this deponent is very doubtfull whether the marriage so solemnized between this deponent and the said Marian Lidgould was and is a legal marriage or not. And this deponent is very desirous that a marriage between him this deponent and the said Marian Lidgould may be again legally solemnized in the face of the Church by a Priest in Holy Orders of the Church of England . . . . . And prayed a licence to solemnize the said marriage in the parish church of St.

Saviour's, Southwark . . . . . And the said John Lidgould for himself maketh oath that he was and is the father of the said Marian Lidgould, who was and is of the age of twenty years and upwards, and is consenting to the solemnization of the said marriage . . . . . Thomas Sedgwick, John Lidgould.
